

1995

Harold Greenlaw

Harold was born November 4th, 1924 in Oceanville to parents Howard and Neddie Greenlaw. He has five siblings- Wyman, Arthur, Basil, Selena, and Gertrude.

Harold was in the Army during World War II from 1943- 1945. Soon after that he ran the Stonington Co-op in the 1950's. After running the Co-op for a number of years, Harold started going fishing on his own. His first boat was called the "Norene Gail", followed by the "Amber Marie", then finally the "Mary Norene".

Harold married his wife Mary and had four children together- Howard, Alison, Gary, and Norene. They have eight grandchildren. Harold was an avid gardener. He used to pick his vegetables and sell them on the side of the road. He was also an avid hunter and was a part of the Shriners. He was a good fisherman.

November 2nd, 2002 Harold died from diabetes and lung cancer.

We are proud to induct Harold Greenlaw into the 1995 Hall of Fame.

Clyde Haskell

Clyde was born March 20th 1932 in Little Deer Isle to Mamie and Peter. He had three sisters- Annie, Violet, and Patti. He married his wife, Margaret in 1957. They had five children- Paul, Starr, Debbie, Peter, and Alice. He was a wonderful grandfather to his 12 grandchildren.

He spent some time in the Army but had to leave the service to help his mother care for his father. He went yachting for the Duponts on the "BLUE HEN 1" and the "BLUE HEN 2". He worked with Wolcott Hardie weiring at Great Spruce Head Island and Sunset. He went fishing with Andrew Gove and Elwell Shepard until he got his own boat, which he named the "Margaret L".

He was a constable for the Town of Stonington. He was also a member of the Rodney Stinson Post which he was the commander for many years. He could be proudly seen walking in every 4th of July parade. He loved to dance with his wife. He would lend a helping hand to anyone that needed it. He never said 'no'. He was known as "Clyde Dog".

Clyde died August 25th, 1989 while lobstering near Isle au Haut, exactly how is unknown.

We are proud to induct Clyde Haskell into the 1995 Hall of Fame.

James Robbins

James was born January 12th, 1912 to Freeman and Vivian Robbins. He has two brothers- Stephen and Eugene.

James bought his first boat and motor for $70. He owned five boats during his career. James has done just about any type of fishing out there. He went smelting, tom coddling, haddock fishing, which were 50 cents per 100 pounds. Then he went trawling, which he got 40 cents per 100 pounds. He also has gone seining, scalloping and lobstering. James retired from fishing in 1998. He now builds model boats as his hobby just to keep busy.

In 1947 he married his wife, Ethel. They had three daughters- Nancy, Margaret (Peggy) and Eileen. They have 10 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren.

We are proud to induct James Robbins into the 1995 Hall of Fame.